AMERICAN HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION
ONE HUNDRED SIXTEENTH ANNUAL MEETING
JANUARY 3-6, 2002 SAN FRANCISCO, CA

SESSION	TITLE OF PAPER	AUTHOR
13	The Legal Problem of Race in Early Nineteenth-Century Martinique	John Savage Lehigh University
27	Aristocrats, Gypsies and Cowboys All: Film Stereotypes and Hungarian National Identity in the 1930s	David S. Frey Columbia University
32	Trading Places: the Public and Private Spaces of Merchants in Sixteenth Century Antwerp	Donald J. Harreld Brigham Young University
45	Margins at the Center: Trials of West Indian and Muslim Men for Unnatural Assault in London in the Early Nineteenth Century	Charles Upchurch Rutgers University
49	Forging the Chains of Empire: Domination and Resistance in the Upper Great Lakes and Upper Mississippi Valley, 1815, 1832	Patrick J. Jung Marquette University
70	African Americans and the Frontier of Leisure: The 1919 Chicago Race Riot and Access to Nature	Colin Fisher Middlebury College
70	Protecting Home and Race: Black Women's Environmental Activism During the Progressive Era	Elizabeth Blum Troy State University
70	Rural African American Environmentalism in Agricultural Classes, Model Farming, and Nature Study During the Early Twentieth Century	Dianne Glave Loyola Marymount University
77	Whose Bach? Göttingen, Leipzig, and Cultural Politics in 1950	Toby Thacker Cardiff University
89	In the Wide Frontier Between Slavery and Freedom: Liberated Africans in Nineteenth-Century Brazil	Beatriz G. Mamigonian University of Waterloo

91	But Was It Gay?: The Geography of Race and Sexuality of San Francisco's El Intimo	Horacio N. Roque Ramírez
135	Protestantism, Mary Stuart, and the Birth of a 'Great Britain?'	Kristen Walton Salisbury University
137	For Religion and the Fatherland: Support from Italy and Germany for Expatriate Separatism in the United States	Mark I. Choate
145	Reversing the Frontier's Advance: Native Opposition to Colonial Settlement in the Eastern Sertão of Minas Gerais, Brazil	Hal Langfur University of North Carolina at Wilmington
152	The "Golden Age" of America's West and Russia's East: Settlers, Gold Diggers, Railroad Workers, Explorers in Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Century	Eva-Maria Stolberg University of Bonn